GitHub Issues & Projects

- April 27th update
  - Set Base Permission in Projects
  - Many bug fixes in new task list

GHAS

- Secret scanning's push protection now generally available for GitHub Advanced Security
- Secret scanning's push protection is available on public repositories, for free
- Secret scanning now supports validation checks for supported partner patterns

Secret scanning

Receive alerts on GitHub for detected secrets, keys, or other tokens.

Disable all Enable all

- ☒ Automatically enable for new public repositories and repositories with GitHub Advanced Security enabled
- ☒ Automatically verify if a secret is valid by sending it to the relevant partner

Push protection

Block commits that contain supported secrets.

Disable all Enable all

- ☒ Automatically enable for repositories added to secret scanning
- ☒ Add a resource link in the CLI and web UI when a commit is blocked

Link will show in addition to the message GitHub displays

Save link

Other stuff

- Secure private attachments
- LaTeX-style math syntax with dollar signs and backticks (for example  $\sqrt{3}$ , 3)
- Code search and code view GA
- Codespaces Settings Sync Updates

Settings Sync

By enabling, your codespaces will be able to pull from VS Code Settings Sync service and push only for the trusted repositories you specify. Only enable this for repositories that you trust.

☒ Enable

VS Code Settings Sync will be available in Codespaces

Trusted repositories

The following repositories will be referenced by GPG verification and Settings Sync.

☒ All repositories

GPG signing and VS Code Settings Sync will be available for codespaces for all repositories

☐ Selected repositories

GPG signing and VS Code Settings Sync will be available for codespaces from the selected repositories

Other stuff

- Mutual connections now available on user profile
- GitHub Desktop makes force pushing and fetching & pull request comment notifications
